

27 May 2004

Dear Sir:

I believe that Satellite Radio constitutes a major innovation in radio. It gives the subscriber a very wide range of station selection with excellent reception. I am concerned that TV and Radio station owners are trying to limit or suppress satellite radio in their own self interest which in this case runs counter to the consumers' interest and desire. This should not happen in America.....Thank you.

Sincerely,

R. Michael McCaffrey